History: San Juan is the largest of the Tewa speaking pueblos. The 1680 Pueblo Revolt was organized and led by Popay (Ripe Squash), a San Juan religious leader. At various times in history the Pueblo has served as an Indian meeting ground, the capitol of North America (according to the Spanish Crown), and the Indian capitol.

Solid Waste: A transfer station has been constructed for the short term and the Pueblo is actively participating in developing a regional waste management plan. IHS has granted $202,000 to address the issue. EPA will be working with the Pueblo, POEP, IHS, and BIA to identify and close open dumps. In March 1998, the Pueblo completed a Landfill Closure/Cover Care Plan.
